Riker's Perfumes and Toilet Articles are the Best.

Riker's, of Sixth Avenue, New York City, have for many years been celebrated for the superior quality of their perfumes and toilet articles. While their goods have been of the best, the prices have always been very moderate; profits lying in the great number of sales and not in the excessive amount made on each one.

We are the sole agents in Richmond for these articles and Tuesday morning we will begin a demonstration of the same.

Violet Cerate is the best toilet delicacy in the market for softening and soothing the skin where one is suffering from chapped hands and face, roughness, pimples, redness, &c. Its prepared in the form of a cream—but it's not a grease that only forms an oily coating. It dissolves freely in water.

Violet Cerate is dainty, sweet and wholesome with the odor of fresh violets and when applied to the skin is quickly absorbed and makes it clear and healthy.

A PECULIAR SUIT

Alleged Damages on Account of Misrepresentation in Sale of Insurance Co. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., November 3. Suit was instituted this morning in the Circuit Court by L. W. Doyle, of Norfolk, against Rev. Lemly R. Wright, pastor of Lafayette Avenue Baptist Church, and Dr. Clarence Porter Jones, for the recovery of $500.

The basis of the suit is alleged misrepresentation by the defendants to the plaintiff relative to the amount of business of the Virginia Mutual Insurance Association, of which the defendants were the officers, and which was sold to the plaintiff.

Mr. Doyle's claim is that it was represented to him by Mr. Wright, who was president, and Dr. Jones, who was treasurer of the company, that it had a collection debt of $50 weekly, and was a paying business. Upon this understanding he purchased the business, and after taking charge he found that it was not paying, and that really the collection debt was $13 per week, and that in addition to what he paid for the business he had lost in salaries and expenses about $300, which he paid to keep the business going.

The defendants, it is understood, will defend the suit upon the claim that the purchase was made upon the showing made by an examination of the books of the concern, and that if any mistake was made, it was that of Mr. Corpey, the manager of the affair, and that they had settled with him upon a basis of $30 per week, and they were as much misled as Mr. Doyle.

Died at Ninety-Two.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., November 3.—Dr. B. Jones, father of Hon. E. B. Jones, Democratic candidate for judge, died to-day, at age ninety-two years.

SERVICES HELD IN THE CEMETERIES

All Soul's Day Celebrated Among the Catholics.

DR. HUTSON'S ANNIVERSARY

Baptist Ministers Engage in a Discussion—Re-opening of Clay-Street Church—Anniversary of Rev. Mr. Hundley.

All Soul's Day was celebrated yesterday by the Catholics of the city with impressive services held in the churches and in the cemeteries. The graves were beautifully decorated with flowers.

At St. Peter's Cathedral solemn high mass was said at 9 o'clock. The celebrant was the Rev. Father Bowler, vicar-general, the deacon, the Rev. Father Joseph Magri, and the sub-deacon, the Rev. Father Koster. A large number of those who have died in the Cathedral parish during the year were read.

After the mass the priests and altar boys entered carriages and were conveyed to Mt. Calvary Cemetery, where they were met by the priests and altar boys from the other churches. A large gathering of the Catholic laity of the city was already present. A procession was formed at the entrance of the cemetery and to the sad solemn accompaniment of the "Miserere" and the "De Profundis" chanted by the altar boys, moved forward to the center of the place, where there was a mound surrounded by a cross and a crucifix.

Services of a somewhat similar character were held in the German Cemetery.

The thirtieth anniversary of the Rev. Joshua H. Hutson, D. D., as pastor of the First Baptist Church, was celebrated Sunday with interesting exercises.

In the morning the feature of the service was the anniversary sermon by Dr. Hutson. At this time he gave impressions of his long pastorate and introduced statistics, showing the facts which make his church probably the largest in the Southern Baptist Convention. When he became the pastor in 1872 it had a membership of 247; it has now on the rolls the names of 1,433 persons; the Sunday-school, which now numbers 1,233, making the largest in the South, had then a membership of only 276. During the 30 years there have been 74 marriages, 1,401 funerals and 20,520 pastoral visits. Over $100,000 have been raised and more than 3,000 additions have been made to the church, an average of 100 per year.

In the afternoon the service was conducted under the auspices of the Baptist Ministers' Conference. There was a musical program and several addresses. The program was as follows: Organ voluntary; doxology; invocation; Rev. J. B. Hawthorne, D. D.; hymn, announced by Rev. I. S. Polley; Scriptures; Rev. C. S. Gardner, D. D.; prayer; Rev. W. T. Derieux, D. D.; doxology; quartet; address, Rev. W. R. L. Smith, D. D., on "What Makes a Good Pastor"; address, Rev. M. Ashby Jones, on "The Pastor's Life in the Life of His People"; the Psalm; address, Rev. W. E. Hatcher, D. D., on "The Staying Pastor"; hymn, announced by Rev. D. A. Solly; benediction, Rev. E. V. Baldy, D. D.

Two handsome gifts were presented to Dr. Hutson. A fine gold-headed cane was the offering of the deacons. It bore the inscription, "Joshua H. Hutson, Pastor, Street Church, 1872-1902, from the deacons." On behalf of the Ladies' Sewing Circle, Mr. M. P. Fines presented the pastor with a handsome leather chair. Both gifts were received by Dr. Hutson with appropriate remarks.

An exceptionally interesting session of the Baptist Ministers' Conference was held yesterday at the Second Church, though the details of the meeting are not made public.

As well as can be ascertained the Rev.

THE CHILDREN ENJOY

Life out of doors and out of the games which they play and the enjoyment which they receive and the efforts which they make, comes the greater part of that healthful development which is so essential to their happiness when grown. When a laxative is needed the remedy which is given to them to cleanse and strengthen the internal organs on which it acts, should be such as physicians would sanction, because its component parts are known to be wholesome and the remedy itself free from every objectionable quality. The one remedy which physicians and parents, well-informed, approve and recommend and which the little ones enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects, is—Syrup of Figs—and for the same reason it is the only laxative which should be used by fathers and mothers.

Syrup of Figs is the only remedy which acts gently, pleasantly and naturally without griping, irritating, or nauseating and which cleanses the system effectually, without producing that constipated habit which results from the use of the old-time cathartics and modern imitations, and against which the children should be so carefully guarded. If you would have them grow to manhood and womanhood, strong, healthy and happy, do not give them medicines, when medicines are not needed, and when nature needs assistance in the way of a laxative, give them only the simple, pleasant and gentle—Syrup of Figs.

Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the combination of the laxative principles of plants with pleasant aromatic syrups and juices, but also to our original method of manufacture and as you value the health of the little ones, do not accept any of the substitutes which unscrupulous dealers sometimes offer to increase their profits. The genuine article may be bought anywhere of all reliable druggists at fifty cents per bottle. Please to remember, the full name of the Company—CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.—is printed on the front of every package. In order to get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine only.

M. Ashby Jones read a paper which provoked a lively discussion. At a late hour in the afternoon the meeting was still in progress. The subject of Mr. Jones' paper was "Knowledge versus Faith."

The re-opening of the Clay-Street Methodist Church Sunday was an event of no little interest and importance to the Methodists of the community.

At services held in the morning and at night the pulpit was occupied by Bishop A. Coker Smith, so well known and greatly beloved here. His two sermons were models of excellence and were heard by great congregations. In the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock a rally was held. Many of the Methodist ministers of the city were present and participated in the exercises. Several addresses were delivered. Among the speakers were Dr. H. E. Johnson, of Laurel-Street; Dr. John Harmon, of Union Station; the Rev. W. B. Beauchamp, of Broad-Street; and Dr. W. W. Lear, of Centenary. Other ministers were present on the pulpit.

The first students' meeting of the season, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, was held at the First Baptist Church Sunday. Responsive reading was conducted by Mr. B. D. Gaw, of Richmond College, and prayer was offered by Mr. Greene, of the University College of Medicine. A large crowd of students from the various colleges of the city had gathered to hear an address by Mr. F. S. Goodman, of New York city. He spoke with great power on "The Master Passion."

The first anniversary of the Rev. W. T. Hundley as pastor of the Barton Heights Baptist Church was celebrated Sunday with services held in the afternoon.

Two addresses were delivered, one by Dr. W. E. Hatcher, and the other by Dr. H. W. White, of Richmond College. A report of the year's work was read by the Rev. Mr. Hundley. He showed that the congregation had contributed nearly $17 per member, and in doing so had given more liberally than any other church in the Dover Association.

At an adjourned meeting of East Hanover Presbyterian held yesterday the Rev. J. J. Fines received from the Presbytery of Winchester after the usual examination on theology and church covenant. The call from the Manchester church was placed in his hands and accepted by him.

The following young men were examined on experiential religion and motives for entering the ministry: Mr. W. H. Stuart, member of the First Church, and a son of Rev. J. L. Stuart, of China; Mr. C. S. Matthews, of the Second Church, and Mr. H. H. Martins, of the Third Church.

A very large congregation listened to a great sermon on Foreign Missions at Grace Street Baptist Church Sunday. It was preached by the pastor, Dr. C. L. Gardner, who took for his text, Paul's declaration, "I Am Debtor, Both to the Greeks and to the Barbarians." A contribution was made by the church of a thousand or twelve hundred dollars.

Rev. Oscar Kaiser, pastor of Jackson Square Lutheran Church, Fairmount Avenue and Irving Place, Baltimore, has been unanimously called to the pastorate of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, of this city, to succeed Rev. Christian J. Oechelslaeger. Mr. Kaiser has not yet given an answer.

Rev. F. D. Power, D. D., of Washington, will lecture next Monday night at the Third Christian Church, in this city.

The Wednesday Club will begin the rehearsal of Horatio Parker's "Horn Novissima" to-night. "Horn Novissima" is the rhythm of Bernard De Molaux on the Celestial country, the English translation being by Isabella G. Parker. The text begins with "Cometh earth's latest hour—Evil hath mighty power; Now watch we ever, Keep we vigil. Lo! the great Judge appears O'er the unfolding years Watching forever." Part II begins with—"Golden Jerusalem, Bride with her diadem, Radiant and glorious, Temple of light thou art, O'er mind and soul and heart, Thou art victorious."

Social and Personal.

The Debutante.

The Debutante sat at the table side, With an elderly youth on either side, And she listened and listened to what they said; And dropped her eyes and hung her head, And fluttered her laces and rustled her silk, And reached her glasses and crumpled her bread, And drank her soup with a tiny spoon, And used her knives and forks too soon, And round herself with unending shame, With an oyster fork when the coffee came.

But her hair was gold and her eyes were blue, And her teeth were pearls; and well she knew That mamma had paid a mighty price For her gown and her gloves; and they were nice, And who wondered and wondered if men could know, And she found they did, for they told her so, Her little heart fluttered within her breast, And she dropped her eyes and turned away, And yearned and yearned for something to say.

But the hostess gathered the ladies' eyes, And by ones and twos she saw them rise, And she wondered and wondered how they could know, With one accord, just the time to go, Her little knees shook; but she did her best— She pushed her coffee cup out of sight, (The coffee was strong and black as night), She turned her head with a timid grace, And yearning look upon her face, She fluttered her laces and rustled her silk, And she said: "How I wish I had some milk!" Then she smiled at the two as she turned away, With an air of pride. She had said her way, And her hair was gold, and her eyes were blue, And her gown was good. So they said, "She'll do."
